MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Ana Gabriela Rubio Zea, 23 Cr. 180 (KPF)

Dear Judge Failla:

On September 12, 2023, on the application of defendant Ana Gabriela Rubio Zea, the Court adjourned the conference scheduled for September 22, 2023 to November 2, 2023. (Dkt. 45). The Government writes to respectfully request that the Court exclude Speedy Trial time until November 2, 2023. Due to the circumstances set forth in the defense application, the Government has not sought the position of defense counsel as to the exclusion of Speedy Trial time. The Government respectfully submits that exclusion of Speedy Trial time would be in the interest of justice, however, in light of defense counsel's compelling family circumstances and the parties' ongoing and productive discussions of a potential resolution to the case. On these facts, the ends of justice served by the exclusion of time outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney

Application GRANTED. Time is hereby excluded under the Speedy Trial Act between September 25, 2023 to November 2, 2023. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by excluding such time outweigh the interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial because it will allow the parties time to continue their ongoing and productive discussions regarding a potential pretrial resolution of this matter, and it will allow counsel for Defendant to attend to compelling and unexpected family circumstances.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the pending motion at docket number 50.
